SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE. APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE.

1. A caserne in Cristian, formerly occupied by cavalry units, is now occupied by a drivers' school under the command of the Rumanian Air Force Headquarters in Bucharest. The caserne is located on the southern outskirts of Cristian about 400 meters north of the intersection of the Cristian-Rasnov highway and the Stalin (Brasov)-Zarnesti railroad.
2. The caserne has not been enlarged or repaired since it was occupied by regiment of the 6th Rumanian Cavalry. Only the stables, which sheltered 150 horses, have been transformed into garages and the forage storehouse into a repair workshop. The dormitories which are situated along the street hold a maximum of 160 men.
3. The staff and officers, as well as the students, wear the Rumanian Air Force uniform, sky-blue with an eagle star emblem and sky-blue braid.
4. A motor fuel depot belonging to the school is located just east of the Cristian railroad station in the forest bordering the railroad line. The guard of the depot is maintained by troops belonging to the school.
